WHO WILL SPEAK If We Don't?

CATHOLIC LOBBY DAY, April 27, 2010

The economic and political situation in California worsens by the day. A strong, clear moral voice speaking on behalf of the unborn, poor children and families, and the vulnerable elderly is needed now more than ever.

Join with Bishop Blaire and Catholics from around state in Sacramento on Tuesday, April 27th.

Flyers and registration forms are available at the back of the Church or contact Rich Fowler at

Quiet Moment

Come away from your work, your family, your homemaking, your ministry, your friends. Even more, come away from your fears and your worries, your roles and your masks, your planning and doing. Jesus is inviting you to come away to rest in God's love for some time each day.

VIRGINIA ANN FROEHLE, R.S.M.
